1. How do you feel you can contribute to the leadership of ASNMM? What strengths/passions/talents do you hold that would benefit ASNMM? Perspective, communication and education
2. With changes in health care service delivery and reimbursement, what and how do you feel you can contribute to keep ASNMM moving forward in the right direction? I am interested in encouraging greater intersociety communication. As a committee member on multiple IONM-related societies, I would like to find a way to bring together communication within the field \(particularly related to best patient care, research, billing, etc.\).
3. ASNMM constantly seeks ideas of how to better serve our membership through education, resources, representation to other professional entities, connections and networking or other means of advancement. What do you think ASNMM could offer its members that would provide value? Larger social media presence, more accessible website, both an in-person and virtual option for future meetings
4. How do you see the role of the ASNMM in advocating for the profession on intra-operative neuromonitoring? Right now, ASNMM's biggest asset for advocating our profession is and has been education \(specifically the webinars and meetings\). Support for this needs to continue, as many people have excellent ideas on how to expand education opportunities and availability.
5. Describe your academic or professional contributions to the field of intra-operative neuromonitoring (this can include publications, reviews, research contributions, creating or advancing professionalism in a service that is dedicated to intra-operative neuromonitoring, education, outreach, presentations, running or organizing meetings (in-house, local, national, international), societal contributions ...). Lecture series and social media contributor

6. Personal Statement: Please provide any additional information to the members.
